An officer of the law made a hurried trip to the locality, hastily borrowing a pair of rubber boots with which to wade through the gore which he expected to find.

Upon arrival at the alley near the refreshment parlor mentioned, the policeman found several highly excited feminines and others about the mouth

"There's a hack came here a little bit ago," said one in trembling accents, "and two men was pulled out by the hair of their heads and trun into the alley. They're making an awful noise, and we don't know whether they have been murdered or killing each other now. It's awful."
Advancing boldly into the obscurity

They will both appear this morning in police court to answer orderly. The offenders weren't exactly sure of their names last night. but their identity will probably be revealed this morning.

Arrested for Horse Stealing.

A deputy sheriff from Santa Fe ar-rived in the city Tuesday night. Yesterday morning early he repaired to the Clarkville Coal yards and arrested Juan Marquez, a native who has been employed there for the last two years as a wood cutter. The warrant for the man's arrest charged him with grealing a horse from a man living in the village of Galisteo, near Kennedy, about two years ago. Some Sensible Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to uege people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over and much more proport and sate over, and much more prompt and sat-isfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

At the regular meeting of the Elks lodge last night action was taken tive of the gentler sex who resides in building was constructed. The building was planned to supply room for a theater, an Elks lodge room for rental, and Silver avenues.

An officer of the law made a building was constructed. The building was planned to supply room for a theater, an Elks lodge room for rental, and in addition a suite of rooms to be used as an Elks club. All but the Elks club has been realized and the Elks club has been realized, and this last is now to be forthcoming.

At the meeting last night it was vot-ed to furnish the club rooms at once ind to open them for use on the first of December. The club rooms are on the ground floor and in the northeast corner of the building. They have been used for some months as lodge cooms of the Knights of Columbus.
One of the rooms will be fitted up as a billiard and card room and anoth er as a reading room, writing and

The club rooms will have the effect of adding materially to the popularity of the building with the members of the lodge.

At the meeting last night J. B. Rutherford was duly initiated and fited with a set of antiers.

ELKS LEASE HOLDING

COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS At a meeting Tuesday night of the members of the Elks Lease Holding corporation, having charge of the operty and real estate of the Elks lodge of Albuquerque, the following members were elected directors to serve for the ensuing year:

Frank McKee, W. W. Strong, P. F. McCauna, W. H. Hahn.
The board of directors have not elected officers as yet but there is no likely to be any change in the board Mr. McKee being president and M McCanna secretary. The meetin adopted a set of by lows for the gov ernment of the corporation and heard Mr. McCanno's detailed report as to the financial status of the company's property. The report shows that while the big Elks' building has not been a gold mine, it has done consid-erably better than pay its expenses during the past year,
